SER
(SERCP)

STARS:
α - Unukalhai “uh-NEW-kuh-lye” 2.5 [serpent’s neck]
θ - Alya “AL-ee-ah” 4.0 [fat tail]
κ - Gudja “GOO-jah” 4.0 [water lizard (Australia)]

Serpens is one constellation divided into two parts with Ophiuchus (the serpent bearer) between them.
The part with the head is called Serpens Caput and the one with the tail is called Serpens Cauda.

Serpens “SIR-pens”
Serpentis “ser-PEN-tiss”
Caput “CAP-uht” (head)
The Serpent Visibility: AM Jan - Jul
PM Jun - Nov